1.4.1 - Institution obtains feedback on the syllabus and its transaction at the institution from the following stakeholders

1. Students
2. Teachers
3. Employers
4. Alumni

- A. All of the above
- B. Any 3 of the above
- C. Any 2 of the above
- D. Any 1 of the above
- E. None of the above

Response: B. Any 3 of the above (Students, Teachers, Alumni)

Getting feedback from students, faculty, and alumni is really important for making improvements in how a College teaches and how students learn. During the 2022-23 academic year, our college collected feedback from all these important groups: students, teachers, and alumni who have graduated from our college.

To do this, our college's Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) created different questionnaires for each of these groups: one for students, one for faculty, one for employers, and one for alumni.

These questionnaires were designed to cover a wide range of topics related to the college's curriculum and educational programs. The feedback gathered from these surveys helps us make meaningful improvements in how we teach and what we teach to better serve our students and meet the needs of our stakeholders.

There is no industry in our location, hence there are no employer details for feedback.

Key Indicator – 1.4 – Feedback System

1.4.2 – Feedback Process of the Institution may be classified as follows

- Feedback collected, analyzed and action taken and feedback available on website
- Feedback collected, analyzed and action has been taken
- Feedback collected, and analyzed
- Feedback collected
- Feedback not collected

Response: • Feedback collected, analyzed and action taken and feedback available on website the College's IQAC (Internal Quality Assurance (Cell) gathered feedback from students, teachers, Alumni and Employers. This feedback was then shared with each faculty member to understand what student; thought about the course content and the performance of specific teachers. Using the ratings provided by students for various aspects and their overall scores, the faculty members in each department adjusted their teaching methods enhanced their mentoring techniques, and offered guidance to students.

Based on this feedback, faculty members also prepared and submitted a PBAS (Performance-Based Appraisal System) and CR (Career Advancement Report). These reports played a role in their career advancement and evaluation.

Alumni Feedback Analysis

Alumni are regarded as a vital source of feedback for a college, with their input being instrumental in improving the quality of teaching and learning methods within the institution. The analysis of alumni survey results is conducted as follows:

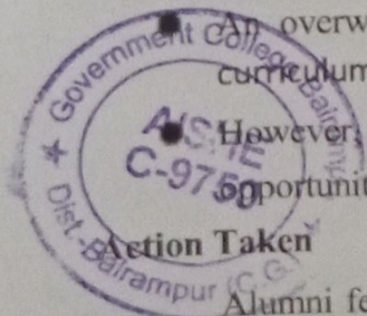

- A significant majority of alumni (70 percent) express agreement with the curriculum's relevance and its usefulness in their careers,
- Half of the respondents (45 percent) believe that the curriculum's study material remains relevant and up-to-date.
- Approximately 60 percent of respondents acknowledge that the curriculum is designed to enhance their practical skills.
- Approximately 49 percent of respondents support the various skill development activities organized by the college for holistic student development.

All overwhelming 80 percent of alumni believe that the teaching methods align appropriately with the curriculum.

However, it's worth noting that half of the respondents indicate dissatisfaction with the campus placement opportunities provided by the placement and training cell.

Action Taken

Alumni feedback shapes curriculum relevance and practicality. Positive responses on curriculum, teaching alignment, and skill development. Concerns noted regarding study material and campus placement opportunities

Students hold a pivotal role as stakeholders in any educational institution. Their feedback is of immense value, serving as a valuable resource for assessing and enhancing the institution's teaching and learning methods. The results obtained from the student survey are analyzed as follows:

Feedback on Teaching Staff: A significant majority of respondents (averaging 85 percent) acknowledge the excellence of the college faculties in terms of their teaching skills, utilization of ICT in teaching, punctuality, regularity in classes, knowledge, good behavior, and effectiveness in addressing doubts. Additionally, a majority of respondents recognize the relevance of the curriculum.

Feedback on the College: A substantial majority of respondents (averaging 80 percent) affirm the presence of a well-stocked library with available books and a reading room facility at the college. Approximately 67 percent of respondents agree that there is effective cooperation among the administration, teaching staff, and non-teaching staff. Moreover, most respondents (averaging 65 percent) highlight the vibrancy of NCC, NSS, and sports teams. However, suggestions have been made for some updates to the college infrastructure and canteen.

About the Survey

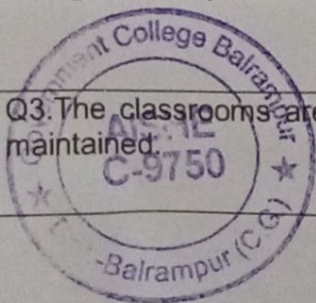

Apart from a questionnaire on teaching-learning and evaluation as recommended in NAAC guidelines, this survey also includes questions related to institutional other aspects like infrastructure, library, administration etc. The survey was conducted during the end of the session through a structured feedback form. A total of 609 students from different streams participated in the survey by filling the feedback form which was allotted to them on their CIMS accounts.
